

Regional Training Workshop for Developing Vital Statistics Reports from Civil Registration
October 10-11, 2018

Provisional Agenda

Wednesday, 10 October, 2018

14:30 – 15:00	Session 1: Reasons for publishing vital statistics reports National planning Sustainable Development Goals
15:00 – 16:30	Session 2. Characteristics of civil registration systems to be described in vital statistics reports History Legal and administrative issues Organizational structure, registration process and data flows

Thursday 11 October, 2018

09:00-11:00	Session 3: Demographic methods for assessing the completeness of death registration One Census Methods: Brass Growth Balance method Multiple Census Methods Generalized Growth Balance method
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30-13:00	Session 4. Assessments of data quality to be included in vital statistics reports Completeness, accuracy, availability and timeliness Existing challenges and plans for improvement Session 5. Minimum set of indicators to be presented in vital statistics reports Calculation and display of fertility indicators
13:00 – 14:30	Lunch Break
14:30-16:30	Session 6. Minimum set of indicators to be presented in vital statistics reports (cont'd) Calculation and display of mortality indicators

	Calculation and display of causes of death indicators Calculation and display of marriage and divorce indicators
	Section 7. Conclusion and way forward Evaluation of the workshop Discussion and recommendations	