The project will help ESCWA countries in:

- Building capacity in the field of energy statistics and balance
- Harmonizing the definitions and classification of energy statistical data
- Producing yearly energy balance
- Making evidence-based policies in energy efficiency and environmental protection