Background

The Central Administration of Statistics (CAS) has one gender focal point that reports to the General director of CAS. The Central Administration of Statistics coordinates gender statistics with the National Commission for Lebanese Women. They published the Women and Men in Lebanon: a statistical portrait in 2002 jointly with the Lebanese Women’s Affairs, the Ministry of Social Affairs and with the participation of several UN agencies. They organized a workshop on gender statistics with the collaboration of World Bank.

Objectives

- Ensure the gender perspective is addressed in all aspects of the statistics production within the CAS.
- Answer requests for gender statistics from national and international users.
- Compile gender statistics data
- Analyze data from gender perspective
- Produce gender statistics publications
- Disseminate gender statistics
GENDER STATISTICS PUBLICATIONS

Women and Men in Lebanon: A Statistical Portrait
2002 (English)
E/ESCWA/STAT/2002/1

This study is based on a national publication (in Arabic) originally implemented through the joint efforts of several agencies, including the Lebanese Women’s Affairs, the Central Administration of Statistics and the Ministry of Social Affairs, with the participation of several United Nations agencies. This publication is the first study to clearly reflect existing gender gaps in various social and economic areas, by presenting data in a user-friendly manner. The publication focuses on priority gender issues that include legal, social, educational, economic and leadership/decision-making aspects. (English, 161 pgs)

GENDER-FOCUSED PUBLICATIONS

Situation Analysis in Gender Based Violence in Lebanon
Four National Studies on Gender Based Violence in Lebanon, part I
2010 (Arabic & English)

These studies are the fruit of a joint collaboration between UNFPA, the National Commission for Lebanese Women and GBV actors in Lebanon, with the support of the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs / Italian Cooperation. They provide a comprehensive overview of the GBV situation in Lebanon in terms of legislations, services, resources, actors, identified gaps and challenges.

Assessment of Media Coverage of GBV Issues in Lebanon
Four National Studies on Gender Based Violence in Lebanon, part II

Review of Gender Based Violence Research in Lebanon
Four National Studies on Gender Based Violence in Lebanon, part III

Review of Gender Based Violence Resource and Training Material in Lebanon
Four National Studies on Gender Based Violence in Lebanon, part IV
