Chapter XI:
Financial Statistics and Prices

This chapter contains financial statistics and price indices for ESCWA member countries, in national currencies, for the period 2007-2011. Data cover government revenues and expenditures; monetary and banking statistics, such as money supply and banking credit; items of the balance of payments; FDI statistics and consumer price indices. Data were collected from national sources and publications issued by competent United Nations agencies.

Table XI-1 presents total government revenues in ESCWA member countries, including grants. Table XI-2 shows government expenditures for the period 2007-2011.

Table XI-3 provides data on money supply for the period 2007-2011, as follows: (a) narrowly defined (M1), including demand deposits and currency in circulation outside the banking system; (b) broadly defined (M2), i.e. the sum of M1 and quasi-money (time deposits, savings deposits and foreign currency deposits); and (c) more broadly defined (M3), i.e. the sum of M2 and large time deposits, institutional money-market funds, short-term repurchase agreements and other larger liquid assets.

Table XI-4 illustrates the distribution of bank credit by economic activity for the period 2007-2011.

Table XI-5 presents statistics related to the balance of payments in ESCWA member countries during the period 2007-2011.

Table XI-6 shows FDI statistics for the period 2007-2011. Those statistics are based on several issues of the UNCTAD World Investment Report and FDI database.

Table XI-7 presents general consumer price indices in ESCWA member countries (for the period 2007-2011), and table XI-8 shows consumer price indices for food for the same period.

The chapter contains a detailed analysis of financial statistics and price indices for ESCWA member countries for the period 2007-2011. The data cover government revenues and expenditures, monetary and banking statistics, items of the balance of payments, FDI statistics, and consumer price indices. The data were collected from national sources and publications issued by competent United Nations agencies.
